Questions people ask

Q. Isn't it odd to celebrate Christ as King since his lifestyle was simple and he actually escaped from the crowd who wanted to make him their king?

A. It depends on how one understands the role of a king. Jesus said to Pilate, 'Yes, I am a king, but my kingdom is not of this world'. He ran off from those who wanted to make him an earthly king as he had no desire for political power or regal pomp. His idea of kingship was to see justice and compassion empowering our lives. Today's feast celebrates a king of truth and life, of holiness and grace, of justice, love and peace. For such a world we pray 'Thy kingdom come'.
